being LGBTQ+ in 2025.

Trevor Project Survey: Your Voice Matters!

The Trevor Project's National Survey on the Mental Health of LGBTQ+ Young People is now open for 13–24 year olds. Your confidential responses will power research that drives life-saving programs, policy change, and funding for LGBTQ+ young people. Help amplify every voice: take & share the survey!

Annual Licensing Fee: What's New for 2025-2026

We've got some exciting updates for our Licensed Secondary Programs! The \$750 Annual Licensing Fee still includes everything to keep your program active and supported, and now with even more helpful tools!

This year, the Licensing Fee includes a NEW Licensed Program Portal with exclusive webinars, resources, and NEW Digital Licensing Package full of tools, templates, and materials.

We're introducing a new way to select materials: choose from four themed campaign boxes designed to make implementation easier with ready-to-use resources that support strong, fidelity-based campaigns.

Sources Spotlight: Madison County Middle School

Georgia's Madison County Middle School Sources of Strength team had an awesome 2024-2025 year! For the Trusted Adults Campaign, Peer Leaders interviewed over 20 staff members from across the school about what it means to be a Trusted Adult and how to support students. These powerful stories were compiled into a video, which reached all 1200 students and staff during all lunch periods!

Decked out in matching sweatshirts they designed, the Madison County Middle School's Peer Leaders and Adult Advisors visited the Capital for the Substance Use Prevention Day in February. After attending the rally, the group toured the Capitol and met with multiple state representatives!

Staff Highlight: Robyn Weiner
Train-the-Trainer Team Lead

Robyn (she/her) joined Sources after serving as a middle school English teacher on the Navajo Nation. She grew up outside of Philadelphia and studied something she doesn't really use at the University of Pittsburgh. Previously, she served as a full-time mentor at a middle school and then worked in development for an education-focused non-profit in Dallas, Texas. She gets strength from positive friendships, experiencing new things, being around any four-legged creature and spending time in nature!

What is an activity that calms you? Walking in nature, yoga, visiting art museums 🌲 What is an activity that energizes you? Being with Positive Friends and running (jogging if we're being very honest) 🏃 What are you thankful for today? My body and my breath (and a few trips on the horizon!) 🧘 Would you rather... fight 1 horse-sized duck OR fight 100 duck-sized horses? Befriend them all! 🐎 🦆
